

General Director WANG YAO – 王遥

General Director Wang Yao's academic interests are Climate Finance, Green Finance, and how to create a Low-Carbon Economy. She is the author of Carbon Finance: Global Vision and Distribution in China (2010), Climate Finance (2013), and several publications and working papers on climate finance and green finance in a Chinese and international context.

Before her work at the institute Wang Yao worked at Guangzhou Securities for seven years. Some of her other professional posts are listed below:

- Deputy Secretary General of Green Finance Committee (GFC) of China Society of Finance and Banking.
- Adjunct Professor of University of Southern Queensland, Australia, and University of Victoria, Australia.
- Fellow at the University of Cambridge Institute for Sustainability Leadership (CISL).
- Advisor for the Sustainable Finance Programme at the University of Oxford Smith School of Enterprise and Environment.
- Visiting Fellow at Harvard University (2010-2011).

Vice President Shi Yingzhe – 史英哲

She Yingzhi is the vice president at the IIGF and head of the green bond lab where his research focuses on financial market innovation, finance engineering, fixed-income securities, bank management, and investment strategies. He is also a researcher at the Research Institute of Securities and Commodities. Shi Yingzhi holds a Ph.d. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Email: syz\_cufe@163.com

Associate Director Liu Qian - 刘倩

Liu Qian is an associate dean at the IIGF and the Executive Director of the Research Institute for Climate and Energy Finance. She is also a member of the Action Coalition of Sustainable Consumption Research and the Global Research Coalition of Sustainable Production and Consumption. She holds a Ph.d in Environmental Science from Nankai University and she's a teaching professor at the Central University of Finance and Economics. Liu Qian's work focuses on adapting environmental standards in a Chinese context and vice versa.

Her works appear in multiple core publications in Chinese and English. She's published more than 20 papers in The Cleaner Production (SCI), Chinese Soft Science (中国软科学), and Chinese Population, Resource and Environment (中国人口·资源域环境).

Email: floraliu2050@hotmail.com

Associate Dean Shi Yi Chen – 施懿宸

Shi Yichen is an associate dean of the IIGF and head of the green finance innovation lab where he's done extensive research on the role of ESG on companies' performance. If you come across an ESG index in China, odds are Shi Yichen's work probably had a hand in its creation. His research focuses on corporate wealth management, Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), investment portfolio, mutual funds, fiscal risk management, and green finance. Under his leadership, the Green finance Innovation Lab innovated methodologies for "environmental stress testing". His publications span Financial Management (美国财务管理协会所属期刊), Review of Quantitative Finance and Accounting 和 Asia-Pacific Journal of Financial Studies, etc.

Email: ycshih\_cufe@163.com

Assistant Director Xu Hongfeng - 徐洪峰

Xu Hongfeng is an assistant director at the IIGF and director of energy finance at the institute. She is also the vice-secretary of the Green Finance Committee in the Chinese Securities Regulatory Commission. She has written a number of books on geopolitical energy relations and continues to research the topic. Xu's works span the topics of Chinese energy finance, international energy cooperation, and energy diplomacy.

She got her postdoctorate from Tsinghua University and is a visiting scholar Harvard Kennedy School.

Email:

Director of the Climate Finance Lab and Carbon Finance Cui Ying – 崔莹

Cui Ying is head of the Climate Finance Lab at IIGF where she researches policy and climate financial instruments, such as the Chinese emission trading market. For the last 13 years she's been involved in climate change research and the policy response thereto. She's overseen the development and the management of over 100 emission reduction and energy conservation projects. Since 2016, she is responsible for writing the Report on Chinese Climate Finance every year. Her other works include Report on the Development of the Chinese Carbon Market.

She holds a master's degree in environmental engineering from Queen's University Belfast.

Email:

Senior Research Fellow Xiaona Xu - 徐晓娜

Xiaona Xu is a Senior Research Fellow at IIGF. She holds a Ph.D. in Economics from Nankai University. She has published more than 10 academic papers in Chinese journals. She has led several research projects, including the Hebei Provincial project and the Ministry of Education Project. Xiaona Xu is experienced working in China's main rating agency in green bond assessment certification.

Email:

Research Fellow Zhan Yan - 严展

Zhan Yan is a Research Fellow at the IIGF and the Executive Director of the Yangtze River Delta Green Investment Institute. He has more than 15 years of experience in credit management of state owned financial institutes and private equity investment funds. Zhan Yan has consulted more than 2,000 enterprises and managed more than 50 billion Renminbi of credit assets.

Email:

Director of the Green Trade Finance Lab Jin Sun - 孙瑾

Jin Sun is the Head of the Green Trade Finance Lab, IIGF, CUFE, and Associate Professor of the School of International Economics and Trade. She holds a Ph.D of world economics from the School of Economics of the People's University of China. Dr. Sun published more than 20 academic papers and 4 books in national authoritative core periodicals. She also writes anonymously for Economic Research and Nankai Economic Research.

Email:

Director of the Green Belt and Road Initiative Research Christoph Nedopil Wang – 王珂礼

Christoph Nedopil Wang is the director of the Green Belt and Road Initiative research at IIGF. He works with Chinese and international organizations to accelerate green finance and green economic development. Christoph has more than 15 years of working experience in the field of climate change and he holds degrees from Harvard, TU Berlin and University of Queensland.

He has abundant professional experience in infrastructure, transportation, sustainable and innovative development. Prior to working at IIGF, Christoph worked for nearly 10 years at the International Finance Corporation. He was also the director of the Sino-German sustainable transportation at the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ). He has many publications, such as the Crisis Management (corporate management) manual for the IFC. You can follow his work on www.green-bri.org.

Email:

Director of International Cooperation Mathias Lund Larsen - 马红星

Mathias Lund Larsen is the Director of International Cooperation. His research focuses on green finance in China, globally, as well as links between the two. He holds two double master's degrees from Copenhagen Business School and Rotterdam School of Management as well as from Sciences Po Paris and Peking University.

Prior to joining IIGF, he previously worked for the UN in New York, Nairobi, Bangkok, and Beijing, during which time he coordinated and developed partnerships in urban-rural linkages, food security, and migration, presented on water, labor, and safety for the Global Compact Leaders Summit, and served as the primary author of report on smart city technologies for sustainable development in China.

Email: lundlarsenmathias@rccef.com.cn

